TALANTA

Peer-reviewed Journal for the Study of Antiquity
Published by Peeters Publishers and the Dutch Archaeological and Historical Society

Editors: Milinda Hoo, Marian Helm, Kay Boers

The Editors of TALANTA – Peer-reviewed Journal for the Study of Antiquity (<http://www.talanta.nl/>), invite submissions for volume 59, to be published in 2027.

The closing date is 1 September 2026.

Submissions

We invite submissions of articles (max. 10,000 words) on the history and archaeology of the Mediterranean (including Roman provincial archaeology), the Near East, the Black Sea region, Iran and Central Asia, as well as East-West relations between and across them, and relevant reception histories, from the Bronze Age to Late Antiquity. We encourage contributions that emphasize the importance of interdisciplinary research and particularly explore intersections of archaeological and historical studies, as well as those that critically interact with social and archaeological theories.

Beginning with TALANTA 59, we also welcome brief archaeological notes and research updates (max. 5,000 words) to further encourage interdisciplinary exchange.

Periodically, TALANTA publishes thematic issues, for instance dedicated to conference proceedings. For proposals for a thematic issue, please contact the Editors.

If you are interested in reviewing a specific book for TALANTA, please contact us on editors@talanta.nl. We also invite publishers to send us books for review. These should be sent to:

Milinda Hoo
Utrecht University, Dept. History and Art History
Ancient History and Classical Civilization
Drift 6, 3512 BS
Utrecht, the Netherlands

The book will be sent to a qualified reviewer, who is asked to review the book within three months upon receipt of the manuscript. Once the review is accepted, TALANTA will publish it in the next issue.

TALANTA is published, promoted, and distributed by Peeters Publishers; published articles will receive a DOI-link.

Guidelines

The journal publishes articles in English, German, French, and Italian, although preference is given to articles in English. Submissions will be assessed by the Editors and the Editorial Board, and peer-reviewed by two experts.

Author and review guidelines can be found on our webpage (www.talanta.nl).

For inquiries and submissions, contact us at editors@talanta.nl.

About TALANTA

Founded in 1969, TALANTA is a peer-reviewed journal for the study of Antiquity (ISSN: 0165-2486). It is published by Peeters Publishers, a renowned international publishing house, and the Dutch Archaeological and Historical Society (NAHG), an independent body of Dutch scholars in the fields of Ancient History, Archaeology, and Philology of the Mediterranean, the Near East, and the Iranian world.

The journal is accordingly devoted to various intersections of history, archaeology, and reception in the study of the ancient world in its widest geographical sense, from the Bronze Age to Late Antiquity. It contains a broad variety of studies in Ancient History, Archaeology, Art History, and Classical and Near Eastern Philology, as well as a book review section.

We look forward to receiving your submission.

With best wishes,

The Editors,
Milinda Hoo, Marian Helm, and Kay Boers
